Statue of Liberty & Ellis Island Saturday, April 16th, 2011

See Lady Liberty in the New York Harbor: located on 12-acre Liberty Island, the Statue of Liberty was a gift of international friendship from the people of France and is one of the most universal symbols of political freedom and democracy. Then, you'll visit Ellis Island Immigration Museum, which tells the moving tales of the 12 million immigrants who entered America through Ellis Island. Today, the descendants of those immigrants account for almost half of the American people. You will also enjoy leisure time at South Street Seaport, a place where innovation and history come together.

Fee: $59 per person / $49 per child 17 & under

Bus Trip Guidelines

- All seats sold are on a first-come, first-served basis. There are no reserved seats. Those who travel alone must share the seat beside them.
- Absolutely no refunds for trips will be given unless the registrant can find their own replacement, if we have a waiting list, or if the Parks and Recreation Department cancels the trip.
- An adult must accompany anyone under the age of 18.
- Rest stops to/from the destination are at the discretion of the Tour Director.
- We are not responsible for your return trip if you miss the bus!
- We typically use a 50-passenger coach bus. Some trips will be "shared" with other towns or businesses. Seats on these shared buses are limited, so register early!
- Detailed trip itineraries will be mailed to each registered participant a few days before the trip.
- Bus departs from and returns to the Police Station Parking Lot located behind the Newington Town Hall on Garfield Street unless otherwise stated.
